
Mrs Radhika Mohan

- Postgraduate in psychology with specialization in counseling and community psychology with over 20 years of experience of treating and teaching. Trained by UNICEF and State Education Department as district resource person for school adolescence life skills education program.
- Received the ALEXIS award - for extensive services in the field of mental health services
- Received an award for best trainer from the Department of Education for training teachers with Life Skills Education
- Currently doing her PhD

Dr Shaji Kutty

Dr Shaji Kutty graduated from Govt Homoeopathic Medical College, Trivandrum, Kerala in 1990 and has been representing NJH in Kerala since 1992.

He organized five NJH Seminars in Kerala and has participated four times in SSMS. For last 21 years he has contributed in popularizing the activities of Indian Homoeopathic Medical Association -IHMA.

Chief Editor of Homoeopathic Medical Panorama, the Organ of IHMA for five years .

He was the General Secretary of Association during 2003- 2004 and presently State Executive Committee Member.

Medical Officer for last seven years, Homoeopathy Department, Govt of Kerala, he contributed greatly for the School Health Program and Healthy Mother and Happy Child Project of the Department.

Dr. Shweta Rastogi PhD, Food & Nutrition),

Clinical dietician & Lifestyle medicine consultant

Author 'Eat right to stay bright' Manage diet to manage disease

Founder secretary & Vice president, Indian Dietetic Association (IDA) Jaipur Chapter Editor, Dietetic Vision, an official newsletter of IDA Jaipur Chapter

International Experience: Clinical Observer Dietetics, (U.S.A)

Clinical & Administrative Dietician: for 11y years in multi-specialty hospitals & various clinics

Lecturer: Guest Faculty for Post Graduate Diploma in Dietetics, SVT college, SNTD University Research: Completed PhD & eleven years dietary research. Research publications in various national & international journals; Paper presentations in both national & international conferences. Research supervisor - IGNOU M.Sc. (clinical dietetics) students

Nutritionist: Worked for community with UNICEF, CARE, CHETNA, I-INDIA (NGO's), Jaipur

Lifestyle medicine consultant: Six years, holistic health presentations & workshop Presently working as the chief dietician, Guru Nanak Hospital & Research Centre, Mumbai

Dr Pravin Jain MD (Hom)

He had also shown his capabilities in the field of technology by developing various softwares like Homoeoacute, Casetracker, Next and developed various websites. Besides, doing all these activities he also finds time to watch comedy movies, of which he is an avid fan.

Dr. Pravin Jain is a talented doctor, author and technocrat and a philanthropist; his trust Sanjeevani Medical Foundation aims to offer free treatment to the underprivileged section of the society. He is also trustee of the Rajasthan Medical Society and Research Centre which runs charitable hospital in Rajasthan. Dr Pravin Jain works enthusiastically for the advancement of Homoeopathy and has started HomeoCARE a chain of super specialty Pediatric Homoeopathic clinics having 9 branches all over India with a unique concept of Child Observation Room (COR) where the nature of child is determined by unique play way method. The COR is result of extensive research for 17 years about behaviour and developmental stages of the child, from infancy to schooling child. His main book is 'Essentials of Pediatrics'. Popularly known as a "homoeopathic pediatrician" he mainly practices out of Mumbai, Wadala, which he began in in 1984

He is the faculty member of Predictive Homoeopath and pillar of organizing Mahableshwar seminars and Director of the international homoeopathic journal, The Similitude

Dr Pradeep Garge

Dr Pradeep Garge after graduation worked at Govt Homoeopathic Hosp, Mumbai where he was trained under the guidance of the great homoeopath Dr Prakash Vakil as well as Dr Prafull Vijaykar and Homoeopathic doyen Dr S K Dubey.

Working for the cause of Homoeopathy he is with NJH since inception in 1992. He was the pioneer to start the Seminar Series in Aurangabad by organising the first NJH-GENIUS SEMINAR in 1997. As a Faculty has given lectures on various subjects at different places. He is approved guide and examiner for MD at various universities.

Dr Parinaz Humranawala MD (Hom)

The multi-talented Dr Parinaz Humranwala, dons the various roles of a doctor, mentor, educator, counsellor, author, ace orator, communicator, writer with superlative presentation skills and researcher with equal panache and has done Homeopathy proud.

Her extensive research on Temperament, ended in creating the HOMPAT software, "TEMPRAZ-The expert System" a monumental work, covering and organising an enormous source of knowledge, she has singled out thousands of rubrics and classified them as Tempraz words -represent various facets of human nature from her 24 years of practice. Her book "Temperament Types – A Study" is in its 2nd edition.

She has been an Honorary Physician at Masina Hospital, Byculla, Mumbai and continues to serve as an Honorary Physician at Mumbadevi Hospital, Vile Parle, Mumbai. For Many years since inception in 1992, she was on the Board of National Journal of Homoeopathy.

Her awards and medals are too numerous to count:

- The Dr SR Wadia Proficiency Medal in the field of Homeopathy.
- The Rotary Club of Mumbai honoured her with the Vocational Excellence and Utility service Award 2008-09.
- The Best Teacher award 2001 was bestowed upon her by Rotary Club, Sion.

Her interviews have been aired by Doordarshan as well as by Radio BBC (Urdu Service), London. She was the panel doctor on the famous Samsung "Hello Doctor" series. A speaker at a WHO sponsored seminar, her paper on Diabetes and its Homeopathic Treatment was very well received.

Most recent is the Award for Excellence in Homoeopathy at Reminiscence-2011, Alumni-Meet of Ex. M.D. (Hom) Students in Beed.